

Consonance Capital Partners Hosts 8th Annual Health Care Leaders Breakfast in San Francisco

Event featured a “fireside chat” with Former HHS Secretary Alex M. Azar II

SAN FRANCISCO, CA, January 14, 2025 – During the week of JPMorgan’s 43rd Annual Healthcare Conference, Consonance Capital Partners again took the opportunity to bring together leaders from the U.S. health care industry, ranging from chief executives of the nation’s largest health plans to health system managers and pharmaceutical and biotechnology industry executives.

The breakfast featured a “fireside chat” with Former HHS Secretary Alex M. Azar II. Led by Javier Starkand, the event included a diverse and distinguished group of health care executives engaged in a spirited discussion covering a broad range of important topics, including potential health care policy priorities for the incoming Trump Administration, the future outlook for Medicare Advantage, and Secretary Azar’s views on the challenges and opportunities in kidney care in our nation today.

About Consonance Capital Partners

Consonance Capital Partners (“CCP”) is a private equity manager focused exclusively on investing in the healthcare industry. CCP’s founders, Mitchell Blutt, MD, Benjamin Edmands, Stephen McKenna, and Nancy-Ann DeParle, partnered together for over a decade while at JPMorgan Partners and its successor and predecessor entities (collectively “JPMP”), and have over 90 years of combined experience in private equity investing, primarily within healthcare. To date, CCP has raised over $1.3 billion in equity capital across two funds, and CCP is currently investing out of Consonance Private Equity II, L.P. With a history of successfully investing across multiple healthcare sub-sectors, Consonance Capital Partners brings a wealth of experience, insights, and an extensive network of relationships to existing and prospective management teams and portfolio companies. For more information, visit <https://www.consonancecapitalpartners.com/>.