

Consonance Capital Partners Hosts Health Care Leaders Breakfast in San Francisco

Event features “fireside chat” with Toby Cosgrove, MD, CEO & President, Cleveland Clinic

SAN FRANCISCO, CA, January 9, 2018 – During the week of JPMorgan’s 36th Annual Healthcare Conference, Consonance Capital Partners took the opportunity to bring together leaders from the U.S. health care industry, ranging from chief executives of the nation’s largest health systems to health plan managers and pharmaceutical industry representatives.

Featuring a “fireside chat” with Toby Cosgrove, MD, CEO & President, Cleveland Clinic, led by Consonance Capital Partner, Nancy-Ann DeParle, the event included a diverse and influential group of health care executives engaged in a lively discussion about a wide range of important topics around the transformation of health care from changing care delivery methods to the impact of technology on health care.

About Consonance Capital Partners

Consonance Capital Partners invests in private companies in the lower middle market of the U.S. healthcare industry with an emphasis on businesses driving efficiency, cost containment and high quality clinical care to patients. Consonance Capital Partners founders, Mitchell Blutt, MD, Benjamin Edmands, Stephen McKenna, and Nancy-Ann DeParle, partnered together for over a decade while at JPMorgan Partners and its successor and predecessor entities, and have over 65 years of combined experience in private equity investing, primarily within healthcare. Consonance Capital Partners participates in growth equity, leveraged buyout, and recapitalization transactions and is currently investing out of a $500 million fund. The private equity fund is associated with Consonance Capital Management, a healthcare-focused long/short public equity manager, and together Consonance Capital has over a billion dollars of assets under management. For more information, visit www.consonancecapital.com.